

Paris Architecture in Painting

I hope you've had a fabulous time in, on and around the buildings of Paris! Want to take something special home? Why not treat yourself or a loved one to an artist's interpretation of the architecture of Paris? Visit 59 Rivoli Artist Studios (59 rue de Rivoli, 75001), or Place de Tertre in Montmartre and you'll also find many other galleries and studios in my book' The Art Lover's Guide to Paris.

Here are three artists you may especially like. Contact them via their websites for appointments. You'll also often find James and David at 59 Rivoli. Ask for them at the entrance.
